This Sunday: Watch the World Cup Finale in the National Portrait Gallery/Smithsonian American Art Museum!

Come root for Germany--or Argentina--or just to have fun!

(©Smithsonian Institution)

The German Embassy together with The Smithsonian American Art Museum and National

Portrait Gallery cordially invite you to a free public viewing of the Germany vs. Argentina game this Sunday, July 13 at 3 pm in the museums' Robert and Arlene Kogod Courtyard.

Fans are invited to attend this free event and dress to support their team. The museums' Courtyard Café will be open for visitors to purchase food and beverages.

This viewing party has been approved by FIFA and ESPN and is supported by the Smithsonian's Office of Facilities Engineering and Operations. Additional support for the event has been provided by the Embassy of Argentina, the Downtown DC Business Improvement District, and D.C. United. The museums, located at Eighth and F streets NW, Washington, DC, are open from 11:30 am to 7 pm.
